3. Objects and purposes of Association

The objects and purpose of the Association shall be:

- (a) To establish a non-political and representative Ratepayers Association to provide a forum for its members;
- (b) To promote civic pride in the Territory;
- (c) To use the Association's best endeavours to represent the interests of the Ratepayers within the Territory;
- (d) To provide and maintain convenient means of sharing information with and between the members, and the committee. For that purpose:
 - (1) The association shall maintain a website that is capable of being accessed by all members.
 - (2) The committee will use its best endeavours to ensure that all members of the association have the opportunity to raise and comment on issues being considered by the committee;
- (e) the purchase, taking on lease or in exchange, hire or other acquisition of any personal property necessary or convenient for any of the objects or purposes of the Association;
- (f) the purchase, sale or supply of, or other dealing in, goods;

² s23 of the Act provides as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a resolution is a special resolution if it is passed by a majority of not less than three-quarters of such members of an incorporated association entitled under the rules of the association to vote as may be present in person at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution was given in accordance with those rules.

(2) At a general meeting to which subsection (1) relates, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution has been carried is conclusive evidence of the fact.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the passing of a special resolution shall be lodged by the public officer of the association, as prescribed, with the Commissioner within a period of one month after the passing of the resolution, and thereupon the resolution shall be registered by him and, until registered, it does not take effect.

(4) A notice under subsection (3) –

(a) shall be signed by the public officer of the association; and

(b) shall be accompanied by such other documents (including a copy of the special resolution) as may be prescribed, and those documents shall be signed or verified as prescribed.

NB A special resolution is required in order to change the name of the Association (s10), to change the Rules of the Association(s18), to amalgamate with another association(s25), to wind up the Association(s32) and to alter annual subscription (MR32).

- (h) the acceptance of a gift for any of the objects or purposes of the Association;
- (i) the taking of any step the committee, or the members of the Association at a general meeting, determine expedient for the purpose of procuring contributions to the funds of the Association;
- (j) the printing or publication of any newspaper, periodical, book, leaflet or other document the committee, or the members of the Association at a general meeting, determine desirable for the promotion of any of the objects or purposes of the Association;
- (k) the borrowing and raising of money in any manner and on terms –
 - (i) the committee thinks fit; and
 - (ii) approved or directed by resolution passed at a general meeting;
- (l) subject to the provisions of the Trustee Act 1898 , the investment, in any manner the committee determines, of any money of the Association not immediately required for any of the objects or purposes of the Association;
- (m) the making of a gift, subscription or donation to any of the funds, authorities or institutions to which section 78A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth relates;
- (n) the establishment and support, or aiding in the establishment or support, of any other association formed for any of the basic objects of the Association;
- (o) the purchase, or acquisition, and the undertaking of all or part of the property, assets, liabilities or engagements of any association with which the Association is amalgamated in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules of the Association;
- (p) the doing of any lawful thing incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects or purposes of the Association;
- (q) To take such action in respect of each of the foregoing objects and purposes as shall be resolved by the Association.

4. Membership of Association

(1) Membership of the Association shall be restricted to persons over 18 years of age who are:

- (a) Residents of the territory;
- (b) Persons who pay rates in respect of property situated in the territory and spouses/partners of such persons;
- (c) Persons not included in either (a) or (b) above but who have a demonstrated interest in the territory and whose membership has been approved by the Association at a general meeting.

(2) Subject to the committee being satisfied that an application for membership has been made in accordance with this rule by a person who is eligible to be a member of the Association, then upon payment of the annual subscription payable in accordance with rule 32, that person is entitled to have his or her name entered in the register of members by the public officer.

(3) An application for membership is to be made in writing and lodged with the public officer of the Association.

(4) A member of the Association may resign by serving on the public officer a written notice of resignation.

(5) On receipt of a notice from a member of the Association under subrule (7), the public officer is to remove the name of the member from the register of members.

(6) A person –

(a) becomes a member of the Association when his or her name is entered in the register of members; and

(b) ceases to be a member of the Association when his or her name is removed from the register of members under subrule (7) or rule 31(4).

(7) The public officer is to maintain, or establish and maintain, a register of members containing –

(a) the name of each member of the Association and the date on which he or she became a member; and

(b) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; and

(c) an email address, if any, that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Association may be sent; and

(d) the name of each person who has ceased to be a member of the Association and the date on which the person ceased to be a member of the Association.

5. Liability of members

(1) Any right, privilege or obligation of a person as a member of the Association –

(a) is not capable of being transferred to another person; and

(b) terminates when the person ceases to be a member of the Association.

(2) If the Association is wound up, each person who was, immediately before the Association is wound up, a member of the Association, and each person who was a member of the Association within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding-up, is liable to contribute –

(a) to the assets of the Association for payment of the liabilities of the Association; and

(b) for the costs, charges and expenses of the winding-up; and

(c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves.

(3) Any liability under subrule (2) is not to exceed $15.

(4) Despite subrule (2), a former member of the Association is not liable to contribute under that subrule in respect of any liability of the Association incurred after he or she ceased to be a member.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, the appointment of a proxy made in accordance with these Rules does not constitute the transfer by a member of any right, privilege or obligation for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this rule.

6. Income and property of Association

(1) The income and property of the Association is to be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association.

(2) No portion of the income or property of the Association is to be paid or transferred to any member of the Association unless the payment or transfer is made in accordance with this rule.

(3) The Association may –

(a) pay a person or member of the Association –

(i) remuneration in return for services rendered to the Association, or for goods supplied to the Association, in the ordinary course of business of the person or member; or

(ii) remuneration that constitutes a reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the person or member for any of the objects or purposes of the Association; or

(iii) a reasonable amount by way of rent for premises, or a part of premises, let to the Association by the person or member; and

(b) if so requested by or on behalf of any other association, organisation or body, appoint or nominate a member of the Association to an office in that other association, organisation or body.

(4) Despite subrule 3(a), the Association is not to pay a person any amount under that subrule unless the Association or committee has first approved that payment.

(5) Despite subrule 3(b), the Association is not to appoint or nominate a member of the Association under that subrule to an office in respect of which remuneration is payable unless the Association or committee has first approved –

(a) that appointment or nomination; and

(b) the receipt of that remuneration by that member.

7. Accounts of receipts and expenditure

(1) True accounts are to be kept of the following:

(a) each receipt or payment of money by the Association and the matter in respect of which the money was received or paid;

(b) each asset or liability of the Association.

(2) The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Association at any reasonable time, and in any reasonable manner, determined by the committee.

(3) The treasurer of the Association is to keep all accounting books, and general records and records of receipts and payments, connected with the business of the Association in the form and manner the committee determines.

(4) The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Association's office or at any other place the committee determines.

8. Banking and finance

(1) On behalf of the Association, the treasurer of the Association is to –

(a) receive any money paid to the Association; and

- (b) immediately after receiving money in the form of cash, issue an official receipt in respect of the money; and
 - (c) cause the money to be paid into the account opened under subrule (2) as soon as practicable after it is received.
- (2) The committee is to open with an authorised deposit-taking institution an account in the name of the Association.
- (3) The committee may –
- (a) receive from an authorised deposit-taking institution a cheque drawn by the Association on any of the Association's accounts with the authorised deposit-taking institution; and
 - (b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.
- (4) Except with the authority of the committee, a payment of an amount exceeding $100 is not to be made from the funds of the Association other than –
- (a) by cheque drawn on the Association's account; or
 - (b) by the electronic transfer of funds from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution.
- (5) The committee may provide the treasurer of the Association with an amount of money to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions the committee may impose in relation to the expenditure.
- (6) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Association's account, and an amount is not to be electronically transferred from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution, except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the committee.
- (7) A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be signed by two authorised signatories.
- (8) An electronic transfer of an amount from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution may only be authorised by two authorised signatories.
- (9) For the purposes of this rule “authorised signatory” means an officer of the Association and any other person who has been expressly authorised by the committee either generally or in respect of specified transactions.

9. Auditor

- (1) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Association present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.
- (2) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under subrule (1), the committee is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.

- (3) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.
- (4) The first auditor –
 - (a) may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting; and
 - (b) if so appointed, holds office until the end of the first annual general meeting unless earlier removed by a resolution of the members of the Association at a general meeting.
- (5) If the first auditor is appointed by the committee under subrule (4)(a) and subsequently removed at a general meeting under subrule (4)(b), the members of the Association, at that general meeting, may appoint an auditor to hold office until the end of the first annual general meeting.
- (6) Except as provided in subrule (4)(b), the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (7) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the committee is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the end of the next annual general meeting.

10. Audit of accounts

- (1) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Association at least once in each financial year of the Association.
- (2) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Association for a particular financial year of the Association, is to –
 - (a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association; and
 - (b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Association who are present at that meeting.
- (3) In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to –
 - (a) specify the information, if any, that he or she has required under subrule (5)(b) and obtained; and
 - (b) state whether, in his or her opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his or her disposal; and
 - (c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.
- (4) The public officer is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.
- (5) The auditor may –
 - (a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association; and
 - (b) require from any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, the Association any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of his or her duties; and
 - (c) employ any person to assist in auditing the financial affairs of the Association; and
 - (d) examine any member of the committee, or any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, the Association, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.

11. Exemptions under the Act

(1) For any financial year that the Association is exempt from the requirement to be audited by virtue of section 24\(1B\) or \(1C\) of the Act –

(a) an auditor is not required to be appointed for that financial year under rule 9 unless the Association elects to have the financial affairs of the Association for that financial year audited in accordance with the Act and these rules; and

(b) if an auditor is not appointed for a financial year by virtue of paragraph (a) –

(i) rules 9 and 10 do not apply in respect of the Association for that financial year; and

(ii) rule 12(5)(b), to the extent that it relates to an auditor, does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year; and

(iii) rule 12(5)(d) does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year.

(2) For any financial year that the Association is exempt from the requirement to provide an annual return by virtue of section 24\(1B\) of the Act, the committee must provide, as part of the ordinary business of the annual general meeting for that financial year, a copy of the annual financial report given under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 of the Commonwealth in respect of that financial year.

12. Annual general meeting

(1) The Association is to hold an annual general meeting each year.

(2) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the end of the financial year of the Association) the committee determines.

(3) An annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meeting that may be held in the same year.

(4) The notice convening an annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.

(5) The ordinary business of an annual general meeting is to be as follows:

(a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;

(b) to receive from the committee, auditor, and other persons acting on behalf of the Association reports on the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year of the Association;

(c) to elect the officers of the Association and the ordinary committee members;

(d) to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration;

(6) An annual general meeting may transact business of which notice is given in accordance with rule 14.

(7) Minutes of proceedings of an annual general meeting are to be kept by the public officer or, in the absence from the meeting of the public officer, by an officer of the Association who is nominated by the chairperson of the meeting.

(8) Minutes of proceedings of an annual general meeting are to be published and remain available on the website that is required to be maintained by the Association pursuant to rule 3(d)(1).

13. Special general meetings

(1) The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Association at any time.

(2) The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 10 members of the Association, is to convene a special general meeting of the Association.

(3) A requisition for a special general meeting –

(a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and

(b) is to be signed by each of the requisitionists; and

(c) is to be sent by email to the Association and such requisition will be deemed to have been received by the Association on the day following its receipt by the Association's mail server; and

(d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.

(4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which a requisition is deemed to have been received by the Association pursuant to subrule 13(3)(c), any one or more of the requisitionists may convene the meeting within 3 months after that day.

(5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as the manner in which a special general meeting would be convened by the committee.

(6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitionists in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Association.

(7) Minutes of the proceedings of a special general meeting are to be published and remain available on the website that is required to be maintained by the Association pursuant to rule 3(d)(1).

14. Notices of general meetings

(1) At least 14 days before the day on which a general meeting of the Association is to be held, the public officer is to publish a notice specifying –

(a) the place, day and time at which the meeting is to be held; and

(b) the nature of the business that is to be transacted at the meeting.

(2) A notice is published for the purposes of subrule (1) if the notice –

(a) is contained in an advertisement appearing in at least one newspaper circulating in Tasmania; or

(b) appears on a website, or at an electronic address, of the Association; or

(c) is sent to each member of the Association at –

(i) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; or

(ii) an email address that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Association may be sent; or

(d) is given by another means, determined by the public officer, that is reasonably likely to ensure that the members of the Association will be notified of the notice.

15. Business and quorum at general meetings

(1) All business transacted at a general meeting, other than the ordinary business of an annual general meeting, is special business.

(2) Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members of the Association entitled to vote is present at the time when the meeting considers that business.

(3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is 5 members of the Association entitled to vote.

(4) If a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting –

(a) if convened on the requisition of members of the Association, is dissolved; or

(b) if convened by the committee, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and –

(i) at the same place; or

(ii) at any other place specified by the chairperson –

(A) at the time of the adjournment; or

(B) by notice in a manner determined by the chairperson.

(5) If at an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

(6) Minutes of proceedings of a general meeting are to be published and remain available on the website that is required to be maintained by the Association pursuant to rule 3(d)(1).

16. Chairperson at general meetings

At each general meeting of the Association, the chairperson is to be –

(a) the president; or

(b) in the absence of the president, the vice-president; or

(c) in the absence of the president and the vice-president, a member of the Association elected to preside as chairperson by the members of the Association present and entitled to vote at the general meeting.

17. Adjournment of general meetings

(1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn the meeting with the consent of the members of the Association who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

(2) If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

(3) If a meeting is adjourned for less than 14 days, it is not necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

18. Determination of questions arising at general meetings

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be determined on a show of hands.

(2) A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been lost or carried, or been carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, together with an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, is evidence of that fact unless a poll is demanded on or before that declaration.

19. Votes

(1) On any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member of the Association (including the chairperson) has one vote only.

(2) In the case of a special resolution, all votes are to be given personally.

(3) In any other case, votes may be given personally or by proxy and for that purpose a member may, in such manner as may be from time to time approved by the Committee, appoint another member to be his or her proxy.

(4) In this rule, a reference to a member does not include a member to whom rule 31(5) applies.

20. Taking of poll

If at a general meeting a poll on any question is demanded –

(a) the poll is to be taken at that meeting in the manner that the chairperson determines; and

(b) the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

21. When poll to be taken

(1) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.

(2) A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson determines.

22. Affairs of Association to be managed by a committee

(1) The affairs of the Association are to be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 24.

(2) The committee –

(a) is to control and manage the business and affairs of the Association; and

(b) may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Association, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised and performed by members of the Association at a general meeting; and

(c) has power to do anything that appears to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association.

23. Officers of the Association

(1) The officers of the Association are as follows:

- (a) the president;
- (b) the vice-president;
- (c) the treasurer;
- (d) the secretary.

(2) Subject to subrule (4), the officers of the Association are to be elected in accordance with rule 25.

(3) Each officer of the Association is to hold office until the end of the next annual general meeting after that at which he or she is elected and is eligible for re-election.

(4) If a casual vacancy in an office referred to in subrule (1) occurs, the committee may appoint one of its members to fill the vacancy until the end of the next annual general meeting after the appointment.

(5) If an office referred to in subrule (1) is not filled at an annual general meeting, there is taken to be a casual vacancy in the office.

24. Constitution of the committee

(1) The committee consists of –

- (a) the officers of the Association; and
- (b) two other members elected at the annual general meeting or appointed in accordance with this rule.

(2) An ordinary committee member is to hold office until the end of the next annual general meeting after that at which he or she is elected and is eligible for re-election.

(3) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of an ordinary committee member, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the end of the next annual general meeting after the appointment.

(4) If an office of an ordinary committee member is not filled at an annual general meeting, there is taken to be a casual vacancy in the office.

25. Election of numbers of committee

(1) A nomination of a candidate for election as an officer of the Association, or as an ordinary committee member, is to be –

- (a) made in writing, signed by 2 members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the nomination); and
- (b) delivered to the public officer at least 10 days before the day on which the annual general meeting is to be held.

(2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee –

- (a) the candidates nominated are taken to be elected; and
- (b) further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.

- (3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies on the committee to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.
- (4) If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies on the committee to be filled, a ballot is to be held.
- (5) If the number of further nominations received at the annual general meeting exceeds the number of remaining vacancies on the committee to be filled, a ballot is to be held in relation to those further nominations.
- (6) The ballot for the election of officers of the Association and ordinary committee members is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in the manner determined by the committee.

26. Vacation of office

For the purpose of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association, or of an ordinary committee member, becomes casually vacant if the officer or committee member –

- (a) dies; or
- (b) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration or estate for their benefit; or
- (c) becomes a represented person within the meaning of the Guardianship and Administration Act 1995 ; or
- (d) resigns office in writing addressed to the committee; or
- (e) ceases to be ordinarily resident in Tasmania; or
- (f) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the committee without the permission of the other members of the committee; or
- (g) ceases to be a member of the Association; or
- (h) fails to pay, within 14 days after receiving a notice in writing signed by the public officer stating that the officer or committee member has failed to pay one or more amounts of annual subscriptions, all such amounts due and payable by the officer or member.

27. Meetings of the committee

- (1) The committee is to meet at least three times in each financial year at any place and time the committee determines.
- (2) A meeting of the committee, other than a meeting referred to in subrule (1), may be convened by the president or any 4 of the members of the committee.
- (3) Written notice of any special committee meeting is to be served on members of the committee and is to specify the general nature of the business to be transacted.
- (4) A special committee meeting may only transact business of which notice is given in accordance with subrule (3).
- (5) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee is ~~6~~4 members of the committee.

- (6) Business is not to be transacted at a meeting of the committee unless a quorum is present.
